PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

Sandy Anderson

SEASON'S GREETINGS

As I write this on a snowy day in December, I wonder where 2017 went. I hope everyone is enjoying their quilting on these cold snowy days. I would like to introduce myself as your new President for 2018. I'm Sandy Anderson and I joined SCHQ two years ago. I moved from St. Paul to St. Cloud, five years ago with my husband to be near my daughter, who helped me with his care. After he passed away in 2015, I needed to make some friends if I was to stay in St. Cloud. What better place than St. Cloud Heritage Quilters! It's a great group of people and I'm happy to be part of them.

When Terri Bahn asked for help with the programs for 2017, I offered my services. Little did I know I was signing up to be "the" program chair. However, through Terri Bahn's great leadership and many others who have passed on great suggestions for program speakers, I was able to fill the months for 2018 with interesting and professional speakers. I still have a few months to fill, partly due to my inexperience with the area and quilt designers,

We have a great speaker for January 2018. Anne Tiller will show us her Pieceful Quilts Trunk Show and tell us about her creative process. Hope to see many of you there.

From Our Past President

Terri Bahn

I can't begin to tell you how thankful I am to belong to SCHQ and to have been your President this past year. We have so many talented, hard-working, fun, and wonderful women and men that make up our group. It's nice to know people who not only share the love of quilting, sewing, and creating, but who can also be there to support you through good and bad times.

We had a wonderful potluck party and will start our new year with Sandy as our President. We need a couple of people to volunteer as our Program Chair/s. We also need a special events person, historian, and the Quilt Show Chair/s. We have many experienced members that have held these positions and can answer questions or help you if you need it, so please email me or call me if you can serve in one of these positions.

See you all at the January Meeting. Have a safe holiday.

Service Projects - 2017

Jean Euteneuer

Thank you so much St. Cloud Heritage Quilters. Because of your generosity we donated 43 quilts with dolls or stuffed animals to Toys for Tots 2017. And we also donated 9 quilts to Pockets of Hope and one to Anna Marie's Shelter. It has been great working with this group and partnering with several other community organizations. Hope we brightened days for many this year.

Small Groups 2017Peggy Aschenbrenner

A huge “thank you” to all the creative people who joined and participated in Small Groups through the St. Cloud Heritage Quilters for 2017. We had a blast and we all were “kept in stitches”. A big “thank you” to Sarah Howard for helping me out during the year and for facilitating the Woolly Brights group. Thank you also to Bev Radich, Marlyn Anderson, and participants for supporting the Featherweight Club and Undercolor Club.

Another huge “thank you” to Karen Cyson for taking on Small groups for 2018 for the guild. Please let Karen know of any ideas for new groups and what groups you would like to see continue for next year. Thanks to everyone who participated! Without you, we could not have all these wonderful groups.
