Season's Greetings! It sounds like the Christmas party in December was a huge success. I heard that some of the games were challenging, but fun. Food was great, and a good time was had by all. Thank you to all who coordinated this fun time.

2019 is going to be busy and exciting because this is the year of our quilt show. Barb Corson, with Marjorie LaTour, have been very busy organizing a crew, and they have a wonderful quilt designer to make the quilt for the quilt raffle.

Since this is my final year to serve as president, I have a president's challenge for those who want to participate. It will be a simple challenge so we can get them completed to be entered in the quilt show this fall. The challenge was inspired by a small group, that I am a part of, called the Undercolor Club. This group has taught me to choose colors that complement each other. Therefore, the challenge will be to "blindly" choose a bag, with 3 color crayons, to make a quilt from any shade of those 3 colors. You can add one other color to it, making a four-color quilt. I hope everyone will participate and choose a bag of crayons. (Please save your 2018 orphan block president's challenge to enter in the 2019 quilt show).

I wish everyone a very Happy and Healthy New Year.

PROGRAMSMarjorie La Tour

Welcome to 2019! We have a great line-up of speakers planned for the new year ---- however, we need someone to manage the Programs. Speakers for the first five months are set up with options for many more to fill out the year. Please consider volunteering for this position. It is really fun to do.

Our speaker for January is Heather Peterson of Anka's Treasures. Heather has recently released a new book and will be giving a trunk show of quilts from her book. You won't want to miss this presentation.

In February, Sue Harmon will be joining us with a trunk show as well as the things to consider when having your quilt appraised.

SMALL GROUPS/SPECIAL EVENTSKaren Cyson

I will bring the Scrap Exterminators patterns to the January guild meeting for those of you who have not picked up all of yours yet. Following the January meeting, if you want patterns that have not been picked up, I will mail them to you at your expense.

Look for information at the January guild meeting on the Photo/Landscape Quilt Workshop which will be held on 2 Saturdays mid-winter. The first day will be spent creating your pattern and discussing fabric selection. You will then have 2 weeks to find your fabric and the second class will be spent sewing.

I am still looking for ideas for a 2019 mystery quilt. I have a few leads, but if you've found a good source please let me know.

Featherweight Group - This group does fun projects throughout the year. To be part of this group, you must own and bring a Featherweight sewing machine. Julie Johnson is the facilitator. They meet the second Thursday of the month at 9:30 am at Messiah Lutheran Church in Sartell, MN. Contact Julie (jjfarm65@gmail.com) to be added to the email list for meeting notices.

Undercolor Club - This group meets the last Wednesday of the month at 5:30 pm at Dunn Bros. Coffee Shop in the Coborn's on Cooper Ave. S. This group works with the "Color Play" book. Make a small project or bring fabrics to illustrate the color combination. Contact Marlyn Anderson pyromarquilter@gmail.com

QUILT SHOW 2019

Barb Corson & Marjorie La Tour

The Quilt Show committee is assembled and will begin meeting on the 4th Thursday of each month. Stay tuned for how you can help. Also stay tuned for the Big Reveal!!! (Of the raffle quilt).

* * *

As previously reported, the show will be held on September 28 – 29, 2019 at the Haehn Center at CSB. The change in date is due to the availability of the Haehn Center. Longtime vendors at our show are being informed of the show dates so they can plan their show calendars.

The theme of the show is “Pins to Pearls” -- celebrating the 30 year anniversary (pearls) of the guild and connecting pins to our love of quilting.

We will have more information to share in the coming months. In the meantime, it’s not too soon to think about items for a raffle basket and quilts to enter into the show. We are both in small groups that are preparing a basket or have planned a quilt challenge for display at the show.
